

"The Office of Congressman Nick Lampson (D-TX) offers internships both in the Washington, DC office and the Stafford and Clear Lake district offices for college students interested in learning how a congressional office works.

Interns must be responsible, self-motivated and eager to work in fast-paced environment. Previous political experience a plus, preferably from campaigns or Capitol Hill. Strong interest in, and knowledge of, American politics and US Congress desired. Intern must maintain positive attitude and possess superior interpersonal skills.

Interns will be responsible for assisting staff with phones, mail, tours, and related front office duties. Additional tasks, including drafting constituent correspondence and research projects, may be assigned as intern demonstrates ability. Full time and 10-15 hour part time internships available. We are looking for a smart, experienced and dedicated intern for a valuable and important position. Graduate students also welcome and will receive more exposure and experience. Please email your resume to TXJobOpening2@mail.house.gov and type INTERNSHIP in the subject line."
