

Would you like to help protect personal freedoms while living the life of a DC intern this summer? The Republican Majority for Choice is searching for a summer intern who is passionate about individual freedom and women's rights. Responsibilities would include researching issues and candidates, assisting in lobbying and grassroots efforts, along with other duties. Our ideal candidate is organized and multi-tasks, with strong writing and communication skills. Political science, communications, women's studies, international affairs, and journalism majors are preferred. Please send a cover letter with resume attached to Elizabeth at epayne@gopchoice.org with your dates of availability included.
